

Agency for Science, Innovation and Technology (MITA) information notice on the processing of personal data

This information notice is intended for you as a participant in an event organized by the communication agency "MITA" (the "Organizer"). In this message you will find the most important information about how the Organizer handles your personal data.

If you have any further questions about your rights as a data subject, please contact us at the contacts below.

When organizing various events, the Organizer processes the personal data of participants and speakers for the following purposes:

- To ensure the smoothness of the remote event;
- Administration of registration of participants to the event;
- Necessary communication before the event;
- Necessary post-event communication, including but not limited to forwarding messages and sending unanswered questions.

We process your personal data for the above purposes based on a legitimate interest of us or a third party. In exceptional cases, we may process your personal data based on your consent. You will be notified of such cases separately.

Please be informed that as a data subject you have the following rights:

- Access to your data and how it is processed (right of access);
- Require the rectification or, depending on the purposes of the processing of personal data, the addition of incomplete personal data (right of rectification);
- In certain cases, destroy your data or suspend the processing of your data (other than storage) (right to destroy and right to be "forgotten");
- In certain cases, require the controller to restrict the processing of personal data (right to restrict);
- In certain cases, the right to transfer data (right to transfer);
- When data is processed on the basis of consent, do not consent to the processing of data;
- Oppose the processing of your data by providing a reasoned explanation;
- File a complaint with the State Data Protection Inspectorate.

We confirm that the Organizer applies all reasonable technical and administrative measures to protect the data collected by us from loss, unauthorized use and / or alteration.

If reasonably necessary, the Organizer may share your personal data with other presenters, venue administrators, or event service providers, e.g. customer, IT service providers, etc. In other cases, the Organizer will transfer your personal data only if it is obliged to do so by the applicable legal acts and only by ensuring the security of the transferred data.

The term of storage of personal data of event participants is 3 months after the end of a specific event.

Please note that the event may involve filming, photography, or audio recording. If you object to the use of your image data for the publicity of the Organizer or event in the public space, please inform the organizers before the event.
